The Christmas Bakery:

Christmas Stollen is served in our home at Christmas time. This recipe was used by my mother, grandmother, and generations before them. We hope it will become a part of your holiday tradition too.

Gingerbread Houses are intricately linked to the fairy tale of Hansel and Gretel. Today gingerbread houses are a popular edible way to decorate for Christmas.

There's nothing more impressive than bringing a Log Cake to Christmas dinner. A "Yule Log" is a traditional dessert served near Christmas, especially in Belgium, France,

A delicious, fruity Christmas pudding is a wonderful part of the celebrations, traditionally served as part of the Christmas dinner in the UK and Ireland.

There are some parts of a Christmas celebration which just don't change. Christmas isn't complete without this classic Christmas Fruit Cake on the table.
